PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the property and liability insurance business has played a major part in supporting and sustaining the growth of the American economy; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of South Dakota and of the United States, largely due to insurance coverages, have more financial protection and a greater sense of security than any people anywhere have enjoyed in the history of mankind, and

WHEREAS, the adequate servicing of the insurance needs of the American people is becoming increasingly dependent upon the sound technical knowledge and the personal integrity and honor of those engaged in the insurance business; and

WHEREAS, The Society of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters is celebrating its 25th Anniversary as an organization culminating in its Annual Meeting and Seminars, October 12-14, 1969; and

WHEREAS the many CPCU members of the Society in South Dakota will join in that celebration and because they have sponsored the development of professional standards, and have advanced the goals of knowledge, character and experience in the business of insurance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 14, 1969, to be:

CHARTERED PROPERTY AND CASUALTY UNDERWRITER DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 19th day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.

Frank L. Farrar
FRANK L. FARRAR, GOVERNOR
